

MINI-CONFERENCE

Is CREATING DIALOGUE POSSIBLE in LARGER GROUPS?

Organized by CREATING LARGE GROUP DIALOGUE in ORGANISATIONS and SOCIETY

Come and join us for a weekend and get a taste of what is possible.

30 AUGUST to 1 SEPTEMBER 2024

We live in a time of growing global 'crisis', often so overwhelming that it is difficult to think and to speak. Creating the possibility of dialogue in global and local situations is increasingly vital yet difficult to achieve. For the last five years we have been developing a community of practice based on Patrick de Maré's pioneering work with group analytic larger groups.

WHERE: Roffey Park Institute, Forest Road, Horsham, West Sussex RH12 4TB

TIMES: From 16.30 on Friday to 16.30 on Sunday
